Choir Concert Makeup Assignment for Excused Absences

This assignment is due one week from the day assigned by your choir director. You can email a copy to your director or print it and turn it in. Be sure to include your first and last name.

Please choose one of the following options:

Option One:

Choose one music composer from the list below and write a one-page typed paper (double spaced, 12pt font) about their life. Include the dates they were born and died (if they are no longer living), where they were born, where they lived, what instruments they played and some of their most famous pieces of music. Also, list at least two more facts about their life you find interesting. Spelling and grammar count toward your final grade.

|-------------------------|---------------------------|
| - Johann Sebastian Bach | - Morten Lauridsen |
| - Ludwig van Beethoven | - Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart |
| - Benjamin Britten | - Eric Whitacre |

Option Two:

Attend a musical performance. This can be any concert (rock, pop, classical, school choir/band, etc). The concert can be performed by students or professionals. Write a one-page typed paper (double spaced, 12pt font) about the performance. Include the names of the performers and any information about their background, such as where they are from or where they are born. If it is a large group, such as a choir or band, just include the number of performers and any information about the director. List the songs they performed and talk about your opinion of the songs. If you liked them, explain why. If you did not like them, also explain what features of the song you did not enjoy. Also, include at least two other details of the concert that you found interesting or enjoyable. Spelling and grammar count toward your final grade.
